

British Parliament Is Still Awaiting Reply From Hitler

Later should not be represented in a cabinet cabinet as the present state.

Opposition to the conscription bill was voiced by J. H. Macdonald, speaker for the small Independent Labour group, who urged conscription of British troops to fight in the Spanish civil war.

Some Labour members urged the working classes not to be forced to carry on the burden of the war, while the government is in the hands of a few days on the working class in London striking to the job while the better class people stay in the country.

He also said he had placed a bet that London would not be bombed for six months.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced today that his second emergency session in two days that another session would be held tomorrow.

Sir John told the House of Commons Prime Minister Chamberlain would make a statement "later today." The delay was interpreted as meaning Britain still awaited Adolf Hitler's response to her "last" ultimatum to halt the war in Poland or fight Britain and France.

Your Health—By Dr. Frank McCoy

A great many causes are capable of bringing on itching of the skin. For example, a lack of oil in the skin may act as a cause. Other possible causes are: The presence of paint, oil or dust on the skin; irritation on the skin surface; the presence of the itch mite, which has burrowed just below the skin; and itching may be one of the symptoms seen in what is called "morvuar" and it may be one of the principal features of such skin disorders as eczema and nettle rash. It may accompany a chronic systemic disease such as diabetes or Bright's Disease.

Irritation of the nerves because of a general toxic condition is still another possible cause, as apparently the toxins are capable of causing a disturbance of the sensory nerve endings.

In the common type of itching, the nerve endings will be sufficiently irritated to produce an increase in the tension within the skin itself. Scratching may help because it temporarily lessens this tension. Anything which will bring more blood to the affected part will generally make the itching worse.

Without knowing the actual cause of the itching it is difficult to give any exact advice about treatment, however, I shall attempt to give you some general directions which may be helpful.

One of the things you may try to do is to bathe the itchy areas in warm water. This will first draw the blood to the skin and then send it back into the body.

One of coolness, which will often relieve the itchy sensation. Apply the warm water by bathing in it or by dipping a clean towel in warm water and then placing the towel against the itchy spots, or by gentle rubbing of the skin. When the skin seems to be covered by a layer of hard, dry cells, try adding ordinary baking soda to the bath water. A good way to use the soda is to add about a quarter of an all, use it to pat the skin gently, rather than to scrub it.

When itching is due mainly to the presence of bodily toxins, a fasting and dishing regimen, together with plenty of water drinking, and the taking of daily enemata, will frequently banish the itching altogether.

IS ALMOST AN EXCLUSIVE CITIZEN OF THE UNITED STATES, ALTHOUGH A NUMBER DO CROSS THE CANADIAN BORDER TO BREED. IT IS KNOWN BY A NUMBER OF NAMES... NOT THE LEAST APPROPRIATE BEING "MR. BIG EYES."

BIG EYES ARE ESSENTIAL TO THE WOODCOCK, FOR NOT UNTIL AFTER SUNSET DOES IT LEAVE ITS SHELTER AND GO ABROAD TO SEARCH FOR FOOD IN THE FADING DAYLIGHT.

ANGLEWORMS HEAD THE MENU FAVORITES, AND THE WOODCOCK'S LONG BILL IS DESIGNED FOR PROBING IN SOFT MUD AFTER THEM.

THE UPPER PART OF THE WOODCOCK'S BILL IS FLEXIBLE AT THE TIP, MAKING IT EASY FOR THE BIRD TO LOCATE AND GRASP ITS INSECT PREY.

THE WHISTLE OF A WOODCOCK'S WINGS, CAUSED BY THE PECULIAR ARRANGEMENT OF THE FEATHERS, IS SWEET MUSIC TO SPORTSMEN WHO LOVE GOOD SHOOTING...AND WOODCOCK ON TOAST.

Big Weekend
Arabian Ranch
Winding It Up

IF EVER a big weekend of especially outdoor sport was attractive to citizens in search of relaxation, it should be this one starting tomorrow. Sunday afternoon will be the start of the Alberta Open golf championship at Mayfair. Edmonton is perhaps more golf conscious than any other western city of your size, and tomorrow is the start of the golfers turning out for major competitions. It accordingly looks as if Mayfair is due for a wave of fans that will keep the lawns and the clubhouse busy all day long during the first two days.

Monday sees about really hot new high. The Alberta Open will be decided, the 18-hole bike classic from Red Deer to Edmonton will be run off the South Side Road, the Calgary Chronicle in two games at Boyle Street for the Alberta intermediate girls' tennis championship, the archery of the city will hold their first tourney, tennis and lawn bowling will be underway all day throughout the city, and in the evening will come the climax when the Eskimos tangle with the Calgary Bronks at Clarke Stadium in a Western Football Conference battle that each club feels it must win at all costs.

If the weather holds fine, Edmonton will go outdoors for Sunday and Monday almost en masse. Labor Day is generally the last best weekend of the summer that offers attractive weather—and nobody is going to miss any of it.

Ranch for Arabians Started

PROBABLY the most famous and romantic of all horses is the full-blooded Arabian. However, they are mighty hard to find if you happen to be in the market for one. In fact there are at present only 589 full-blooded Arabians in the continent of North America.

The number is likely to increase materially through in the next few years for Joseph Hook, Chicago big shot industrialist, has just taken over the magnificent Tumbannum ranch in the Black Forest east of Colorado Springs, Colorado. He has a plan to start a breeding plant for Arabians. There are 4,500 acres in the layout.

Hook points out that the Arabian is a favorite for riding owing to its grace, intelligence, speed and endurance. He further explains that they make better mounts than other horses since they come with one less rib than other breeds are equipped with. Their desert ancestors bequeathed them a camel-like ability to go all day with only one drink of water. Prices for good Arabians run as high as $5,000 a head. They are delicate things to raise though and it is a lot up whether or not a calf will live to grow into a mature animal.

Winding Up the Week

KNUTSON, one of Edmonton best players, left today to start a tour of the United States. He will be in Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, and Denver. He will be in Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, and Denver.

BLUE BOMBERS DEFEAT RUGBY RIDERS

Winnipeg Takes Lead By 20-6 Triumph

WINNIPEG, Sept. 2.—Winnipeg Blue Bombers swept into the Western Interprovincial Football Union leadership on the strength of a versatile attack that out-manoeuvred Regina Roughriders' famous defence for a 20-6 victory.

The all-round play of Wayne Shiley, sturdy halfback from Augustana College, South Dakota, and the smashing gains of Winnipeg's own Andy Bieber led the Bombers' assault. Shiley's forward-passing was a hazard throughout and he scored one touchdown. Bieber ploughed for many long gains and crossed the line twice.

Hardcore Greg Rabat converted all three touchdowns from place-kick, and Bieber kicked up extra two points in the final quarter when a rider snap near the goal line went wide and in the end zone for a safety touch.

SPRINGSTEEN GETS TWO
Clarence Chert Springsteen, 250-pound lineman who graduated from Regina Dales from Regina Dales, defeated the Regina Roughriders in the final game of the season. The game was played at North Edmonton and the final score was 10-7.

Mekellar and Dalmor closed home runs for the winners, while Greg Rabat scored twice for the Roughriders.
